

Table of Contents

|                                                   |    |
|---------------------------------------------------|----|
| Lionel Barber (United Kingdom)                    |    |
| No Fairy-Tale: Germany Can Do .....               | 17 |
| Lluís Bassets (Spain)                             |    |
| Transfer of Ideas:                                |    |
| The Influence of German Democracy on Spain .....  | 20 |
| Arun Bharat Ram (India)                           |    |
| Germany – A Country on the Move .....             | 26 |
| Boris Biancheri (Italy)                           |    |
| The World is Waiting for German Initiatives ..... | 30 |
| W. Michael Blumenthal (USA)                       |    |
| Insights from the Outside .....                   | 35 |
| Tanella Boni (Ivory Coast)                        |    |
| Passage through Germany .....                     | 42 |
| Dominic Boyer (France/USA)                        |    |
| There are Still Thinkers in Germany .....         | 44 |
| Nicholas Boyle (United Kingdom)                   |    |
| Englishmen in Göttingen .....                     | 51 |
| Henri de Bresson (France)                         |    |
| Berlin: A Taste of the New Europe .....           | 56 |

|                                                     |    |
|-----------------------------------------------------|----|
| Philip Campbell (United Kingdom)                    |    |
| Germany – Land of Ideas? Sure! . . . . .            | 60 |
| Bernardo M. Cremades (Spain)                    |    |
| In Love with German Law . . . . .                   | 66 |
| Howard J. Davies (United Kingdom)               |    |
| Who was Bismarck? Only a Battleship? . . . . .      | 71 |
| Junichi Furuyama (Japan)                        |    |
| You're so Normal now . . . . .                      | 76 |
| Santiago García Echevarría (Spain)              |    |
| A Sparkling Source of Ideas:                        |    |
| German Humanism . . . . .                           | 79 |
| Alfred Grosser (France)                         |    |
| Of Good and Bad Ideas . . . . .                     | 84 |
| Zaha Hadid (Iraq/United Kingdom)                |    |
| You were the First to Understand My Ideas . . . . . | 89 |
| Young-Sup Huh (South Korea)                     |    |
| German Reunification: A Model for Korea? . . . . .  | 91 |
| Geert van Istendael (Belgium)                   |    |
| Yes, We Need German Ideas.                          |    |
| For Current Challenges! . . . . .                   | 93 |
| Laurent Joffrin (France)                        |    |
| Germany as Role Model . . . . .                     | 99 |

|                                                            |     |
|------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Jean-Claude Juncker (Luxembourg)                           |     |
| You Are Good.                                              |     |
| Even Though You Might Doubt It Occasionally . . . . .      | 106 |
| John C. Kornblum (USA)                                 |     |
| The Black Hole of German Identity . . . . .                | 111 |
| Adam Krzeminski (Poland)                               |     |
| Of German Revolutions and German Ideas . . . . .           | 117 |
| Frank O. Kwami (Ghana)                                 |     |
| In Grandpa's Footsteps . . . . .                           | 122 |
| Iván Lipovecz (Hungary)                                |     |
| Why so Timid, Germany? . . . . .                           | 126 |
| L. Hunter Lovins / Pablo Päster (USA)                  |     |
| World Class! German Environmental Policies . . . . .       | 129 |
| Henning Mankell (Sweden)                               |     |
| On the Path to a Whole New Way of Thinking . . . . .       | 135 |
| Luis Alberto Muñoz (Costa Rica)                        |     |
| The German Conscience Revolts . . . . .                    | 143 |
| Adolf Muschg (Switzerland)                             |     |
| The Germans and the Futureof Washed Concrete . . . . . | 149 |
| Kent Nagano (USA)                                      |     |
| Feeling Germany . . . . .                                  | 156 |

|                                              |     |
|----------------------------------------------|-----|
| Susan Neiman (USA)                           |     |
| Appetite for Ideas .....                     | 160 |
| T.N. Ninan (India)                           |     |
| Germany – A Brand That Shines .....          | 163 |
| Christian Rainer (Austria)                   |     |
| Parallel Worlds .....                        | 168 |
| Gianni Riotta (Italy)                        |     |
| Frederick Would be Amazed:                   |     |
| Germany, Italy, Europe – All United .....    | 173 |
| Clovis Rossi (Brazil)                        |     |
| Brazilian Dreams, German Realities .....     | 178 |
| Jean Louis Scaringella (France)              |     |
| German Keys to Success .....                 | 183 |
| Paul E. Steiger (USA)                        |     |
| German Sentiments .....                      | 194 |
| Pramod Talgeri (India)                       |     |
| The 21st Century:                            |     |
| New Challenges for the German »Geist« .....  | 199 |
| Bassam Tibi (Syria)                          |     |
| Germany as Land of Ideas:                    |     |
| A Model for Foreigners and Immigrants? ..... | 207 |

|                                         |     |
|-----------------------------------------|-----|
| Nils Morten Udgaard (Norway)            |     |
| The Vanished Big Brother .....          | 210 |
| Daniel Vernet (France)              |     |
| Dribbling in Berlin .....               | 215 |
| Pedro Vieira (Portugal)             |     |
| My Germany .....                        | 219 |
| Giuseppe Vita (Italy)               |     |
| And Now: Innovations .....              | 223 |
| Maribel Zavala Rivas (Mexico)       |     |
| Brought to Tears: Boomtown Berlin ..... | 230 |
| Moshe Zimmermann (Israel)           |     |
| Do Nations have Ideas? .....            | 236 |