

Contents

Participants	xiii
Introduction	3

Part I Reform Maximalists

1 Boris Yeltsin: The Wrecking Ball	70
2 Anatoly Chubais: The "Neo-Bolshevik" Privatizer	87
3 Yegor Gaidar: The Shock Therapist	95
4 Boris Nemtsov: The Political Activist	115
5 Mikhail Kasyanov: The Pro-Market Prime Minister	159
6 Strobe Talbott: Bill Clinton's "Russia Hand"	169

Part II Reform Gradualists

7 Grigoty Yavlinsky: The Permanent Oppositionist	180
8 Sergei Rogov: In Search of Checks and Balances at Home and Abroad	203
9 Nodari Simonia: The Pro-Putin Vote	227
10 George Soros: The Active Philanthropist	230

Part III Five Policy Perspectives

11 Sergei Dubinin: Monopoly Sector Reform in Progress	251
12 Oleg Vyugin: Monetary Policy in Action	275
13 Boris Jordan: Media Man and Investor	289
14 Anatoly Visbnevsky: Demographic Dilemmas	300
15 Jack Mullock Jr.: The Road Ahead	325

Part IV The Role of History

16 Martin Malia: History Lessons	339
17 Richard Pipes: The Past in the Present	353

Index	371
-------	-----