

Contents

Gertrud Pickhan / Rüdiger Ritter: Introduction .....	7
--	---

I. USA - Europe

Josef Jařab: Marching Regimes and Syncopating Drummers. The Stories of Jazz in Unfree Societies.....	11
John Gennari: The Other Side of the Curtain: U.S. Jazz Discourse, 1950s America, and the Cold War .....	25
Rüdiger Ritter: The Radio – a Jazz Instrument of its Own.....	35
Claire Levy: East and West in Dialogue. On the Intercultural Aspects of Jazz History .....	57
Yveta Kajanová: Denotative Components Of Jazz During The Period Of Communism As Exemplified In Czech And Slovak Jazz.....	65

II. Two Ways of Jazz: Poland and Soviet Union

Martin Lücke: The Postwar Campaign against Jazz in the USSR (1945-1953).....	83
Michel Abeßer: Between Cultural Opening, Nostalgia and Isolation – Soviet Debates on Jazz between 1953 and 1964.....	99
Marta Domurat: The Jazz Press in the Polish People's Republic. The Role of Jazz and Jazz Forum in the Past and Today .....	117
Piotr Baron: Development of "National styles" in Jazz after World War II. The Example of Polish Jazz .....	129
Igor Pietraszewski: Being a Jazz Musician in Poland.....	145

III. Between East and West: The Baltics

Tiit Lauk: Estonian Jazz Before and Behind the “Iron Curtain” .....	153
Heli Reimann: Lembit Saarsalu: “Music Saved Me.” The Study of a Jazz Musician’s Early Musical Development .....	165
Ruth Leiserowitz: Jazz in Soviet Lithuania – a Nonconformist Niche.....	183

IV. Variety of East Central European Jazz Scenes

Gergő Havadi: An Individual Subculture Reflected in Domestic Spies’ Reports. Hungarian Jazz in the Socialist Period .....	191
Adrian Popan: Jazz Revival in Romania 1964 -1971 .....	199
Peter Motyčka: The Jazz Section – A Platform of Freedom in Czechoslovakia.....	215
Christian Schmidt-Rost: Freedom Within Limitations – Getting Access to Jazz in the GDR and PRP between 1945 and 1961 .....	223

V. Jazz and Art

Marina Dmitrieva: Jazz and Dress. Stiliagi in Soviet Russia and Beyond .....	239
Wiebke Janssen: “Don’t knock the Rock!” “Halbstarke” in both German states during the 1950s.....	257
Karl Brown: Dance Hall Days. Jazz and Hooliganism in Communist Hungary, 1948-1956 .....	267
Michael Dörfel: Poetry and Jazz: The Records of “Jazz Meets Literature” in the GDR.....	295

VI. Summary

Bert Noglik: “Jazz behind the Iron Curtain” – a Conference in Warsaw .....	311
--	-----