

Contents

List of Figures and Tables	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
Notes on Usage and Translation	xv
Introduction	5
PART ONE: CULTURE, IDEOLOGY, SOCIETY	17
1. The Kulturkampf and German National Identity	19
Protestantism and Kultur: Constructing a National Canon	20
Force, Freedom, and Cultural Disunity: The Role of the State	37
The Kulturkampf and the Catholic Community	42
2. Visions of the Nation: The Ideology of Religious Conflict	50
The Ideology of the Protestant League	51
Catholics, the Nation, and the Roots of Antagonism	61
3. Religious Conflict and Social Life	79
"The Invisible Boundary"	80
Secularization	85
Confessional Integration and Confessional Conflict	94
The Social Bases of Confessional Conflict	102
PART TWO: POLITICS	115
4. The Politics of Nationalism and Religious Conflict, 1897–1906	117
Sammlungspolitik, Salutations, and the Jesuit Law: Symbolic Politics	118
The Underground Politics of the Protestant League	127
The Reaction of the Catholic Center	138
5. The Politics of Nationalism and Religious Conflict, 1907–14	141
German Nationalism and the Catholic Center in the Bülow Bloc	142
The Organization of the Nation: Religious Conflict inside the Nationalist Pressure Groups	146
The Collapse of the Bülow Bloc and the Eclipse of Integral Nationalist Politics	154

PART THREE: RELIGIOUS AND NATIONALITY CONFLICT IN THE BORDERLANDS OF THE IMAGINED COMMUNITY	167
6. Protestants, Catholics, and Poles: Religious and Nationality Conflicts in the Empire's Ethnically Mixed Areas, 1897–1914	169
The Geography of National and Religious Conflict in the Ethnic Borderlands of the Prussian East	170
German Protestants and Catholic Poles	173
The Protestant League and the Limits of Protestant Organization in the Ethnic Borderlands	178
German Catholics and Polish Catholics: The Making of an Antagonism	185
The Catholic Center and the Nationality Conflict	191
7. Los von Rom: Religious Conflict and the Quest for a Spiritual Pan-Germany	206
The Allure of Nationalism: The Appeal of Los von Rom	211
Throne, Altar, and National Religion	219
Pan-German Politics and the Demise of Los von Rom	225
Conclusion	233
Sources	241
Archives	241
Newspapers	243
Journals	244
Statistics, Handbooks, and Reference Works	244
Other Primary Sources	245
Secondary Sources	252
Index	267