

CONTENTS

Introduction	I
PART I: MINDS
1. The Laboratory in the Field: Inventing Imperial Psychology	13
2. A Dream Dictionary for the World: The Globalization of the Unconscious	43
PART II: TESTS
3. Meritocracy or Master Race? The Origins of Mental Testing in the British Empire	83
4. Square Pegs and Round Holes: Aptitude Testing in the Barracks and Beyond	116
PART III: EXPERTS
5. The Truth about Hearts and Minds: Development and Counterinsurgency in the Postwar Empire	155
6. Psychology beyond Empire: Global Expertise and the Postcolonial Mind	189
Conclusion	217
Notes	221
Acknowledgments	295
Index	297